A Note from the President - Jeff Lee

I would like to congratulate the cast and crew of Beauty and the Beast for an excellent show. This production was very well attended with a sell out on the final matinee. I heard and experienced many examples of the audience being truly moved by the actors portrayal of this story of love and redemption. I ran into Jerry Flynn, our Deputy Mayor, in the lobby after he'd seen the final show, he shook my hand and all he could say was "that was so good". I could tell that he was at a loss for words to adequately describe how he felt about it.

With some minor exceptions this show was expertly executed every time and got better every night. The final night was the best and the emotional last song brought the audience into our world when the show ends and we have to say a goodbye to the family of the production. Our youth have shown us amazing talent over the years. Those who are moving on in life we thank you and hope you'll be back as adults to share your talents with our community; for those looking forward to the next show, we're all looking forward to it as well.

Thank you to Kate Cooney, Sharron Stelzner, Linda Baiglee, the cast and crew for a fantastic example of MUsic Drama and Dancing on Stage.
